

Master of Public Health (MPH) – Course Curriculum

The Master of Public Health (MPH) programme is delivered over four semesters with a total of 80 credits.

Semester I

Course	Credits
Introduction to Public Health	3
Social and Behavioural Sciences in Health	3
Epidemiology I	3
Biostatistics & Data Management I	3
Demography	1
Environmental & Occupational Health I	3
Health Policy & Health Systems	3
Field Visits	1
Total Credits	20

Semester II

Course	Credits
Health Policy & Management II (Health Management with an Introduction to Health Economics)	3
Environmental & Occupational Health II	3
Social & Behavioural Sciences II	3
Epidemiology II	3
Journal Club	2
Biostatistics & Data Management II	3
Research Methods	3
Leadership, Communication & Training Skills	2
Field Visits	1
Total Credits	23

Semester III

Course	Credits
Monitoring & Evaluation	3
Disaster Preparedness & Management	2
Specialisation Track (Choose One): • Non-Communicable Disease Epidemiology • Public Health Surveillance	12
Field Visits	1
Total Credits	18

Semester IV

Course	Credits
Dissertation	10
Seminars on Gender & Vulnerable Populations	2
Seminars on National Health & Nutrition Programmes	2
Seminars on Recent & Emerging Public Health Issues	1
Ethics & Public Health Laws	2
Grant Writing	2
Total Credits	19